Boxing Flourishing Everywhere
Now Except in the United States, Where the Summer
Heat Is Causing a Lull.

WHILE the summer heat is putting boxing out of business temporarily here in the United States the sport is flourishing nearly everywhere else. In Australia, where it's winter now, being in the Southern Hemisphere, boxing is experiencing a boom. A number of American fighters are making the Australians happy with exhibitions of back, jab and uppercut. McGorty, who has been getting big purses at every start, is apparently satisfied to stay in Australia as long as the money comes rolling in. Clabby, Shurua, Pal Brown, Saylor and a lot of other boxers from Western States are also in the Antipodes getting rich. Harry Stone went to Australia so flat broke that he didn't have enough to buy a tuppence cigar when he landed, and after a successful campaign left with $12,000 in cash and letters of credit. He's cleaning up just as well in England just now, and when he returns to America for a visit will be as much of a nabob as Willie Ritchie and Wolgast.

In England, besides Harry Stone, are Willie Ritchie and Gunboat Smith, two of our best lightweights. Ritchie is matched with Carpenter, the great Frenchman, and will fight him in London before Dick Burge's club. Jim Savage has just returned from England after defeating P. O. Curran (weight 217 pounds) in twenty rounds.

SAVAGE went to England to fight Bombarider Wells, but some kind friend tipped Wells to the effect that Savage, if he had a fighting night, would surely beat him, and Wells drew out of his match because it interfered with another engagement. Savage is going back to England in a few weeks. The English critics liked his work immensely, and wrote pages describing his remarkable gameness. Curran swung on Savage's eye while Savage was extending his right hand for the customary handshake at the beginning of the bout, closing it tight. In spite of this handicap and several bad cuts produced by Curran's butting, Savage begged Dick Burge, referee, not to disqualify Curran, and then went in and beat him.

Jim Coffey is in Ireland. He hasn't any fight engagement at the moment, but could easily be induced to cross to England if given a chance with Wells or Carpenter. It is said that Johnson, if he beats Moran, will be given great inducements to fight Coffey in Dublin.

In France Moran and Johnson meet to-morrow night for the world's heavyweight championship. This of course is the most important fight of the season. Langford may be hustled over to meet Johnson if he wins, and Gunboat Smith is expected to be a challenger of the winner, and to be matched if he beats Carpenter. A score of less famous Americans are boxing in the French capital, including Tom Kennedy, Tony Rose, Willie Lewis and others known to the New York fans.

Here's another for the Feds. WASHINGTON, June 26.—Carl Cashman, pitcher, has been released to Montreal of the International League by Manager Griffith of the Washington American League team. Cashman had been with the Washington team a couple of years, but lack of control caused his being farmed out. Manager Griffith retains an option on him.

BOSTON, June 26.—The Giants won the first game of to-day's double header with the Braves 8 to 4. Mathewson took things easily and won his safely seven times, while the Giants put in eight hits against Tyler in five innings and winning the game in the fifth with four runs, when hits by Mathewson and Fletcher filled the bases, Fletcher then getting a triple and scoring when Mann's throw to the plate took a bad bound.

VETERANS OF N. Y. A. C.
PLAY BRILLIANT GOLF
IN ANNUAL TOURNEY

J. D. Foote, 64 Years, Returns
Card of 78—Richard
Brothers Win Again.

CLINTON, S. L. N. Y., June 26.—The first round of match play at the Fox Hills course to-day for the golf championship of the New York A. C. resulted in easy victories for the Richard brothers, who tied up with Chisholm beach for the best qualifying score. Walter Richard defeated Robert Collier, 7 up and 5 to play. H. C. Richard also had his own way beating Edward Martin of Englewood, 7 up and 6 to play.

Shisholm Beach, the other member of the trip, tie, had the greatest way of all, winning by default from N. W. Peters. Results in the championship, sixteen were rather one-sided.

The most remarkable feature in to-day's competition was the unprecedented showing by some of the New York Athletic Club seniors. Veterans like J. D. Foote, sixty-four years, S. McElie, fifty-two, and J. G. Batterton, fifty-eight, took out young opponents and gave them a golf lesson. The great playing these three veterans did has probably never been duplicated in this country. Both Foote and Batterton returned scores of seventy-eight while McElie came right behind with an eighty-one.

Summaries of the championship sixteen:

Chisholm Beach, Fox Hills, beat N. W. Peters, Englewood, by default. S. McElie, Englewood, beat A. H. Pogson, Fox Hills, 3 up and 2 to play; J. G. Batterton, Fox Hills, beat C. A. Spofford, Garden City, 3 up and 2 to play.

Raymond J. Kirwan, N. Y. A. C., beat Capt. S. M. Milliken, N. Y. A. C., 4 up and 3 to play. James D. Foot, Apawamis, beat John H. Bell, Wykagyl, 5 up and 4 to play; W. L. Richard, St. Andrews, beat Robert Collier, Dunwoody, 7 up and 5 to play; R. M. Tarleton, Great Neck, beat Stanley Gifford, Fox Hills, 2 up and 1 to play; H. C. Richard, St. Andrews, beat Edward Martin, Englewood, 7 up and 6 to play.

SHAMROCK IV. SAILS
AWAY FROM OLD BOAT.

TORQUAY, England, June 26.—Shamrock IV, Sir Thomas Lipton's new challenger for the America's Cup, had her first real official trial under cup conditions to-day. She beat the old Shamrock over a 17-mile course by four minutes fifty-three seconds elapsed time. The corrected time was estimated at about a minute and a half.
